

Cleveland District State High School

Student Expectations

Include and accept others	Create Imagine, Inspire and Innovate	Achieve our personal best	Respect each other and our world	Enjoy learning and find humour	in a Safe supportive environment
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Consider opinions and feelings of others. • Value and respect diversity • Allow all students to learn in an inclusive classroom environment • Contribute positively to the school learning environment 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Apply past knowledge to new situations. • Persist and find new ways to achieve my goals. • Think flexibly- be able to change perspectives, generate alternatives and consider all other options to inspire others 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Commit to continuous improvement every single day (Kaizen) • Arrive on time to class and be ready to learn. • Ask for help when needed • Work at learning • Celebrate the achievements of others • Be open to engaging in all elements of the school community: Social, Academic, Sporting, Citizenship and Cultural. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Define our happiness and wellbeing by the happiness and wellbeing of those around us. (Ubuntu) • Respect your own and others' right to learn. • Be considerate of other's personal space and property. • Take pride in the school, its reputation and our environment. • Be a Global Citizen • Follow the hands off policy 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Work hard and have fun (Neoteny) • Engage in the learning experiences provided by the teachers with a positive attitude • Work with others to achieve higher standards. • Commit to being a lifelong learner. • Be helpful, honest, courteous and polite to members of the school community. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Value my own safety and that of others. • Follow staff instructions. • Stay alert and report unauthorised people on the school property to the teachers or other staff members. • Keep the school environment neat and tidy. • Enter teaching areas in a quiet and orderly manner.